

For Immediate Release

COMCAST SPECTACOR'S JOHN PAGE NOMINATED FOR FACILITY EXECUTIVE OF YEAR BY POLLSTAR MAGAZINE

WELLS FARGO COMPLEX PRESIDENT IS AMONG INDUSTRY'S ELITE

John Page, a Comcast Spectacor executive who serves as President, Wells Fargo Complex, was today nominated for Facility Executive of the Year by Pollstar Magazine, a trade publication covering the worldwide concert industry.

"John Page is a terrific leader who has done so much throughout his career to help our company, our people, and this industry grow," said Dave Scott, President and CEO, Comcast Spectacor. "This past year, John's success in rallying his Wells Fargo Center team around hosting events like the Democratic National Convention and the NCAA Men's East Regionals, plus the arena's 20th anniversary and extensive suite renovations, is a credit to his outstanding leadership. John has tremendous relationships throughout our company, and we are all proud of his nomination. This recognition by Pollstar readers further solidifies John as one of the top facility executives in the industry."

Pollstar will announce the winners as part of their 20th Concert Industry Awards at The Novo (formerly Club Nokia) in Los Angeles, CA, on February 2, 2017. Other nominations include Bob Belber, Times Union Center, Albany, NY; Jeff Nickler, BOK Center, Tulsa, OK; Lee Zeidman, Staples Center, Los Angeles, CA; Ralph Marchetta, Talking Stick Resort Arena, Phoenix, AZ; and Trey Feazell, Phillips Arena, Atlanta, GA.

With an emphasis on the entire Wells Fargo Complex, Page also oversees Comcast Spectacor's partnership interest in Xfinity Live!. He also leads the company's four Flyers Skate Zone locations and Spectra Presents, the company's concert and touring business.

Page draws national sports and entertainment attractions to the region through his long-term relationships with some of the nation's top concert promoters, the NCAA, the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League.

Page works in close collaboration with the Wells Fargo Center's surrounding community as President of the Sports Complex Special Services District. He also serves as a Board Member for the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

The Wells Fargo Center is Comcast Spectacor's showplace that redefines the fan experience and is a showcase for Comcast Spectacor since the company manages the building and owns the Philadelphia Flyers. In 2016, the Wells Fargo Center celebrated its 20th anniversary after hosting both the Democratic National Convention and the NCAA Men's East Regionals. Page and his team renovated 82 luxury suites on the arena's suite level to enhance the premium experience further. Many of the top touring acts visited the Wells Fargo Center during 2016, including Adele, Pearl Jam, Justin Bieber, Barbra Streisand, Drake, Meek Mill, and AC/DC. The Wells Fargo Center continuously attracts numerous prestigious events, including political conventions, NCAA Championships, All-Star Games, concerts and family shows, creating countless memories for millions of fans throughout the region.

Page was named President of the Wells Fargo Complex on July 29, 2015, after serving as Chief Operating Officer of Global Spectrum (now Spectra Venue Management) for Comcast Spectacor. As Global Spectrum's Chief Operating Officer, Page oversaw a rapid expansion of the company's footprint as it grew from 40 facilities in 2004 to more than 135 today. During his tenure, the company hosted two Super Bowls, two BCS Championship games, the NAACP Convention, the NBA Finals, the Stanley Cup Final, the World Series, numerous NCAA events, All-Star Games and the Republican National Convention in 2000.

Page joined the company in 1991 as an Event Coordinator at the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena, relocating to Philadelphia in 1993 to become Event Manager at the Spectrum. He was named Vice President of Event Production in 1997 for Comcast-Spectacor, becoming Senior Vice President in 1999.

Comcast Spectacor is part of Comcast Corporation, a global media and technology company that operates Comcast Cable and NBCUniversal. Headquartered in Philadelphia, Pa., Comcast Spectacor's three core businesses are the National Hockey League's Philadelphia Flyers, the Wells Fargo Center venue, and Spectra, the expert in hosting and entertainment through its Venue Management, Food Services & Hospitality, and Ticketing & Fan Engagement divisions. Visit us at ComcastSpectacor.com for more information.

ABOUT SPECTRA VENUE MANAGEMENT

Spectra's Venue Management division is the industry leader across a full range of services that impact the bottom-line success of public assembly venues, including marketing and sales, corporate partnerships, event booking, ticket services and box office management, customer service, operations and engineering and finance and administration.

ABOUT SPECTRA FOOD SERVICES & HOSPITALITY

Spectra's Food Services & Hospitality division delivers the industry's most innovative and profitable solutions through its Everything Fresh™ philosophy at sports arenas, stadiums, casinos, convention centers, cultural attractions, fairgrounds and other specialty venues. Spectra Food Services & Hospitality serves over 250,000 events and 40 million guests each year.

ABOUT SPECTRA TICKETING & FAN ENGAGEMENT

Spectra's Ticketing & Fan Engagement division is a leader in ticketing, fundraising, marketing, and analytics solutions with over 35 years of experience. Spectra Ticketing & Fan Engagement enables college athletic programs, arenas, professional sports, and performing arts clients to sell more than 120 million tickets per year.